KEEP EDUCATION OUT OF POLITICS, SAYS PRIEST

Declaring that the Smith-Towner education bill now before congress is almost as unbecomingly as the national prohibition act, Rev. Timothy M. Crowley, pastor of St. Mary's Star of the Sea church, New London, made a strong attack on the government assuming complete control of education in a sermon preached at the four masses on Sunday.

"The public must abandon the cause of the education against this bill," declared Father Crowley. "Admiral and political interference in our educational system must not be tolerated. It is not to the interest of the pupil or the teacher that the schools of the country should become the tools of the politician."

"We daily hear the cry of other employees of the government reflecting on the manner in which they have been neglected. Just now the postoffice employees are complaining, a nation's employees are complaining of the poor pay which they are receiving. The government will not pay the teachers enough and the best minds will leave the profession. Moreover, there was might say in the teaching profession because of the low pay of the work that this particular bill would under the new bill will become the prey of the various political parties."

STATE INSTRUCTS CITIZENS HOW TO ENTER SANATORIA

Pamphlets telling how to reach the state tuberculosis sanatoria and other information regarding the institutions, have been issued by the state authorities for distribution.

The pamphlet has this to say regarding applications for admission to the state institutions where tuberculosis is treated: "If you have tuberculosis and desire to be cured, you should apply to the state tuberculosis commission at the Capitol in Hartford, and ask for an application blank. Blanks may be procured at the office of your selection or charity department, or visiting nurse association."

Have your physician fill out the application and return it to the Capitol. If you have a preference for a certain sanatorium, say so, and an effort will be made to assign you a vacancy at that institution of your choice. It is not always possible to admit a prospective patient immediately upon receipt of the application because some of the sanatoria are full and have waiting lists for the sanatorium you select.

It will be necessary for you to pay at least four dollars a week while you are a patient at the sanatorium. The sanatorium cannot accept your application unless you furnish a guarantee for this four dollars a week. If you or your friends cannot pay this amount, you may apply to the state tuberculosis commission for a loan. The law of the state requires the towns to pay this four dollars for every resident of the state who is a patient at one of the state sanatoria averages fifteen dollars a week. Four dollars is the minimum rate, a patient's expenses are paid by the state. The cost as they can afford, and the state will pay the difference.

When you go to the sanatorium take with you a few dollars in cash, a determination to be cheerful yourself, and to keep others cheerful; to obey implicitly the easy rules, and to get well.
